Calendars are available at $5.00 from Jane Winstanley.

CARING FOR OUR HERITAGE BUILDING

The summer break allows us to carry out various building maintenance including floor polishing and carpet cleaning. We would appreciate the following -

- You LIFT tables and chairs instead of dragging them along the polished floor (Auditorium, room A and B)
- NO TAPES on the walls and painted doors. There are other alternatives to mount notices & posters.
- MAGNETS are available from Jesús Cruz for posting sheets on the outside doors of church & south entrance.
- You are careful with beverages when meeting in the carpeted Reception room. Juice (orange, cranberry) stains are permanent, so do other sugary drinks (coffee, coloured water/frozen treats)

Please call the Swan at ext. 21 or Jesús/custodian at ext. 24 if you need help or have any questions on this matter.

TUESDAY GROUP

September 23

The Tuesday Afternoon Group will start again on Tuesday, September 23rd, 1:30 pm in the Reception Room. Feel free to invite a friend to join us. All they need to bring is their curiosity and a desire for some good companionship. Absolutely no ThD's required! This fall we shall go back to our initial study format and spend our time looking at the coming Sunday's readings, so bring your favourite Bible. In case you are interested, our first set of readings are Matthew 21: 23-32; Philippians 2: 1-13; Exodus 17: 1-7 and Psalm 78: 1-4, 12-16. However, no pre-reading is necessary. Have questions? Call or write to John Carrington

BACK TO CHURCH SUNDAY (B2C)

September 28

Once again, we will join the rest of the diocese in observing B2C on Sunday, September 28. B2C is based on the simplest and shortest step in evangelism - that we should invite someone we already know to something we love - inviting a friend to our church. By participating in B2C Anglicans are discovering that it is possible to share our faith in a way that is both easy and natural. We invite every member to invite a friend.

CORPORATE WORSHIP

September 28

The Sidespersons and Men's Breakfast group will be invited to worship corporately on Sunday, September 28. We began this practice last year.

What's happening @ your library

... NEW LIBRARIAN NEEDED

After eight years as the Librarian at Holy Trinity, I must leave. We are moving to East York in late September. It will be very hard to leave Holy Trinity and all the friends I have made.

I have enjoyed bringing life back into our little library, and connecting with everyone who wanted to talk about books and reading. I was not alone in the library. Angella Smith has an excellent understanding of the computer program that we use to manage the collection. Several other people have volunteered on a regular basis to sort and label books, write a book review, accompany me to the bi-annual Church Library Association conference, trim stamps for the Christian Salvage Mission, and many more tasks. Thank you to Elaine Stecyk for setting up our fall bulletin board.

I hope that one or more of you will be called to continue this mission in our church. Good organizational skills and an ability to work well with others are needed. Library training is an asset, but there are a number of people who, I'm sure, would be willing to answer technical questions.

I won't say goodbye yet. I'll say "au revoir", since you will see me around for another few weeks at least.

BIBLE MONDAYS

November

For four weeks in November (3, 10, 17 & 24), we study the Letter of James. Attendance for the study of the Psalms and The Letter to the Philippians was not encouraging. Registration for this study will be available in October. It is hoped that there would be better attendance..

YOUTH MINISTER .. Next Steps

A Team met with David Tigchelaar for an exit interview. In light of the decision taken following the views expressed at our Parish Meeting (2011-12) and David's departure, the parish needs to look at the way forward. It is being proposed that there should be a parish meeting later in the Fall to engage on Saturday, November 29 from 9:30-12:00 noon.
