

Patience is a form of faith.
Faith says “I trust God.
I believe that God is bigger than this problem.”

WRAP GOD'S COMFORT AROUND THOSE SUFFERING

Autumn is here and with it, the frosty nights and crisp days that call for the cozy crafts of knitting and crochet. The PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY has been very active for the past few months. Blessed shawls with printed greetings and prayers from Holy Trinity are distributed locally to hospitals and care centres as well as to suffering communities across Canada.

Ministry leader Cathy Pearson has made a connection with the town of Weldon, SK and the James Smith Cree Nation, which was shocked in September by a mass stabbing in which 10 people died and 18 others were injured. She has also reached out to Toronto Police Services about recent shootings. There's great need for the comfort and hope this ministry provides ... and shawl supplies are low.

Have a shawl nearly done? Finish up and drop it off, making sure to pick up some more yarn on your way out. Considering joining in? Patterns are available. Questions? Call Cathy at 905.884.4308.

JOYS OF CHRISTMAS PAST – POINSETTIA TEA

THEN..... Enjoy the tea!

YOU CAN GIVE CHRISTMAS FOR EVERY CHILD

Join us November 5, 1:00 – 3:00pm in Rooms A & B, to decorate and pack shoeboxes full of gifts for Operation Christmas Child. Bring your neighbours, families and grandchildren. This year we're focusing on youth ages 10 – 14. Bring an empty shoebox, wrapping paper and items to fill the box on Saturday the 5th, or drop them off in our Shoebox Bin in the library area. We also need to include $10/box to cover shipping. You can donate this at the church office or through e-transfer to corporate@holyltrinity.thornhill.ca (Specify Shoebox Gift).

If you can't join on November 5th, shoeboxes and donations are welcome until November 12th – for blessing on November 13th.
