The Festival of Christmas

The ACW is asking you to search your jewellery boxes! We are planning a jewellery store at the Festival of Christmas. If you no longer have a use for some beautiful pieces of costume jewellery, we would love to sell it at our festival. All money raised, of course, will go to ACW and then the money is distributed to charitable causes. Thus your donation becomes a gift to others.

Please keep donations until the Fall, when we will again remind you about this project. At that time we will give you a place to leave your gifts.

We thank you in advance for your thoughtfulness.

We recently bid farewell to Princewill, who had been a valuable member of our virtual chapel team. During his time with us, Princewill made a significant impact on our congregation and helped us connect with our virtual community in meaningful ways. His dedication, kindness, and commitment to our church will always be remembered. We thank him for his service and wish him the very best in his future endeavors.

Our Parish Enjoys a Fun-Filled

On June 4, 2023, members of our parish came together for a delightful picnic filled with laughter, games, and great food. From families with young children to our beloved senior members, everyone had a wonderful time enjoying each other's company. The event was a testament to the strong community spirit that we have here at our church. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all who helped make this event a success, from the organizers to the volunteers who helped set up and clean up. Your hard work and dedication are truly appreciated. We look forward to more opportunities to celebrate our community and strengthen our bonds of fellowship.

We want to take this opportunity to say a special thank you to the organizing committee: Bari-Lynne Butters, Ruth Staples, Neda Dalir, Ehsan Esmaeeli, Hazel Ogilvie, Ann Young, Cathy Walker-Pilgrim, and Leanda Kirwan; to our master Bar B Q'ers Dom Parravano, Eshan Esmaeeli and Ed Carter and the Corbetts for their BBQ.

Former Refugees share their stories at Holy Trinity Thornhill

On Sunday May 28, our community had the privilege of hearing from three former refugees, Daniel Schild, Mehawi Kachse, and Tesfazgi Tekle Asegom, who shared their incredible journeys and the impact of the support they received from Holy Trinity Thornhill and its partners. The event was a beautiful celebration of diversity, community spirit, and compassion. The speakers shared their stories of resilience, courage, and hope, inspiring everyone who attended. We are grateful for the organizers, volunteers, and of course, the speakers, who made this event possible. Here are some photos of the event, capturing the warmth and joy of the day.
